ALL LOTS NOT EXAMINED BY THE VETERINARY SURGEON ON THE SALE DAY WILL NOT BE COVERED BY A VETERINARY WARRANTY.

It is emphasised that the facilities are not available to undertake a full veterinary examination on the day of the Sale, but part veterinary examination should take place. - (5) At the end of the veterinary examination, the Veterinary Surgeon will provide the Buyer with a certificate stating that the horse does or does not comply with the physical description of the horse given in the catalogue.
- (6) In the event that the Sale day or post Sale Veterinary Certificate states that the horse does not comply with the physical description given in the catalogue, the Buyer shall not be liable to pay the price for the horse and is entitled to the return of any deposit that may have been paid by the Buyer.
- (7) In the event that a Buyer fails to avail himself of a veterinary examination on the day of a Sale, the Buyer cannot thereafter make complaint of matters, which would have been covered by a veterinary examination.

- (4) In the event that the Buyer fails to make oral or written notification of his complaint within the above timescales, the Buyer shall not be allowed to return the horse to the Seller but must make payment for the horse in full unless the Buyer can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer that it was not reasonably practicable for the Buyer to discover the complaint, and to notify the Auctioneer of the same, within the above timescales. The name of the person appointed by the Auctioneer to act as Arbitrator shall be notified by the Auctioneer to the Seller and to the Buyer. The Auctioneer shall thereafter have no further responsibility in respect of the Complaint Procedure.
- (6) The examination and resolution of the complaint shall be under the control of the Arbitrator and the Seller and Buyer shall comply with all directions that may be given by the Auctioneer in respect of the complaint.
- (7) The Arbitrator may require, before proceeding to examine and determine the complaint that the Arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be paid in advance. The Seller and the Buyer shall thereupon each pay one-half of the sum stipulated by the Arbitrator.
- (8) The Arbitrator may direct that the horse shall be subject to such trial as he may direct, and the Seller and Buyer shall lend their full co-operation to such a trial.
- (9) If either the Seller or the Buyer fail to comply with a direction of the Arbitrator or fail to pay any sum ordered to be paid by the Arbitrator, then the Arbitrator may at his own discretion decide not to proceed with the examination and determination of the complaint and may, if the Seller is in default, order that the horse be returned to the Seller or may, if the Buyer is in default, order that the Buyer pay the full price to the Seller.
- (10) Upon the determination of the complaint, the Arbitrator may at his discretion order that the unsuccessful party pay to the other all the costs and expenses associated with the Complaints Procedure.
