How to Pay

You can pay your membership via

- The Society's website—and submit the form by email
- Send a cheque to WPCS with this form
- Direct Debit (see overleaf).

Currency

Our subscriptions are shown in UK pounds sterling (£).

You may pay by Access, Visa, Mastercard, Eurocard, and Switch. We recommend you use a credit card if you live outside the UK: your card or account will be debited the equivalent amount in your own currency.

Payment from Overseas

Members who wish to make payments from outside the UK for goods or services by international bank transfer should please contact chris@wpcs.uk.com for further information

Direct Debit

For those with a British bank account, the best way to pay for your membership is via direct debit using a variable amount direct debit mandate. This is strongly recommended, since it means that your annual subscription is collected every January, without any further effort from yourself.

Direct Debit applications must be sent in on the original form. Photocopies or scans are not acceptable.

Please Note: Members will incur a £20 administration fee for any Direct Debit payments that are unpaid.

If you live in a multi journal household—where several members reside and you do not feel that you must receive a journal this will save the Society funds spent on printing and postage of unnecessary volumes of the Annual Journal. If you would like to opt-out of receiving a Journal please tick this box.

Should you at any point in future wish to change this position please contact the WPCS Office and we will amend your account. Thank you.
